Important Information About Personal Exemptions

Property owners in Florida may be eligible for exemptions and additional benefits that can reduce their property tax liability. While the Homestead Exemption and Save-Our-Homes assessment limitation help thousands of Florida homeowners save money on their property taxes every year, further benefits are available to property owners with disabilities, senior citizens, disabled veterans, first responders and active duty military servicemembers. (See our Veteran & First Responder Exemptions brochure).

Additional Exemptions You May be Eligible For: Apply by March 1

- Homestead*
- First Responder Totally & Permanently Disabled in the Line of Duty*
- Veteran s Disability*
- Tax Benefit for 65+ Veterans with a Combat Related Disability*
- Deployed Military Service Members
- Service Connected Total and Permanent Disability*
- Surviving Spouse of Veteran Who Died in the Line of Duty
  - * This benefit may pass on to the surviving spouse under certain conditions.

Remember to Report Changes in Exemption Status

If you qualify for a homestead exemption or any other exemption, you must report any changes in your status that may make you ineligible for the exemption. Please call or email our office at hx@pcpao.org so we can help you understand your options.

Low-Income Senior, 25-Year Residency Exemption*

An additional exemption for certain Senior, Low-income, Long-term Residents is available in limited jurisdictions**. Those who qualify are exempt from municipal millage within their respective tax district.

To qualify, at least one property owner must be 65+ years of age, already receive homestead exemption, meet the annual income limit, have resided in their home for at least 25 years and their property just value must be less than $250,000 in the first year of application.

Mark Your Calendars

Be sure to file before the March 1 deadline. You may apply online at www.pcpao.gov.

Exemption for totally and Permanently Disabled Persons*

Any homestead property used by a quadriplegic, paraplegic, hemiplegic or other totally and permanently disabled person, as defined in Section 196.012(11), Florida Statutes, who must use a wheelchair for mobility or who is legally blind, shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes.

Persons must be permanent Florida residents as of January 1 of the assessment year and the prior year gross income of all persons residing in or upon the homestead shall not exceed a specified amount. Quadriplegic persons have no income limitations. Contact our office or check our website for the current year's income limitation amount. Gross income includes Veterans Administration and any social security benefits paid to the persons. A statement of gross income must accompany the application. If filing for the first time, please bring certificates from two licensed Florida physicians or the Veterans Administration, stating the disability is total and permanent with mobility by wheelchair or quadriplegic.

Disability ($5,000)***

A $5,000 exemption is available on property owned by a 100% totally and permanently disabled person who does not use a wheelchair for mobility and/or whose income is over the statutory limit for total tax exemption. This is in addition to the $50,000 homestead exemption, resulting in a total exempt amount of $55,000. The exemption is available on any and all property owned by the applicant, and also applies to tangible personal property, such as mobile home attachments. The property owner is required to be a permanent and legal resident of Florida.

To qualify, the applicant must present a letter from their licensed Florida physician or the Social Security Administration stating that they have a 100% total and permanent disability. A letter from the Veteran's Administration is also acceptable if the letter states that the disability is non-service connected.

Deployed Servicemembers

This additional exemption is available to active duty military service members who have homestead exemption and were deployed outside of the United States in the prior year in support of designated military operations approved by the Florida Legislature. This exemption does not renew and must be applied for annually as the criteria will change each year.

Widow/Widower ($5,000)***

Any widow or widower who is a permanent Florida resident, may claim this exemption. However, if the widow/widower remarries, they are no longer eligible. Applicants will be asked to provide a death certificate when filing.

Exemption for Blind Persons ($5,000)***

A $500 exemption is available on property owned by a blind person whose income is over the statutory limit to qualify for total tax exemption. This is in addition to the $50,000 homestead exemption, resulting in a total exempt amount of $55,000.

The property owner is required to be a permanent and legal resident of Florida. The applicant must present a letter from their licensed Florida Physician, the Veteran's Administration, the Social Security Administration or the Division of Blind Services that they are legally blind. A blind person is defined as a person who is "certified by the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education or the Federal Social Security Administration or United States Department of Veterans Affairs to be blind. As used herein "blind person" shall mean an individual having central vision acuity 20/200 or less in the better eye with correcting glasses or a disqualifying field defect in which the peripheral field has contracted to such an extent that the widest diameter or visual field subtends an angular distance no greater than twenty degrees."

- * Subject to total household income limits annually.
- ** Currently adopted by North Redington Beach, Safety Harbor and St. Petersburg
- *** Homestead is not required for this exemption.
